To whom may it concern,

Dear Hiring Manager,

I have 2 years of experience working in IT field as a Associate Level Two Support Engineer at and also currently I have successfully completed the WSO2 linux administration and Devops Engineering training.I am hoping to learn about system security from some of the best in the industry, and in my research, I see the company's requirements and our goals and interests are so aligned, I think we'd both accomplish more if I took my research and resources to your company.
